

Comfortables and Blankets

The call is now for a warm Blanket or Comforter, one that at the same time is not depressing with its weight. The peculiar process of weaving the fabric in our Cotton Blankets has decreased the weight and increased the sanitary value. The Beacon, Esmond and Australian Blankets are superior in every way to the old fashioned ones. The distinct wool finish does not prevent it from being strictly moth proof and besides they look bright and new after washing.

$1.39 to $3.75 in Cotton of Above Style.
Beautiful Wool Blankets from $4.50 to $10.00.
Cheap Cotton Blankets, 59c, 65c, 75c, $1.00 and $1.25.
Comforters from 90c to $3.50 each.
Don't Miss Seeing our Special Blanket at $2.25.

Allen and Howard Reid and James Carwell returned last night from Norwich university at Northfield to spend Sunday at their homes.

A good hearty laugh and many of them is what the current program at The Theatrical to-night for a great laughing show it is hard to beat, the pictures are all good and laugh makers.

There will be a meeting of local 488, Musicians' Protective Union, in Woodmen hall Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. A full attendance of the members is desired.

Fred Beckman looks natural in a local barber shop again. He is working in Miers' shop after working in the mountains this summer and after being away from Barre for several years.

George E. Parker, who has been clerking at the City Hotel for the past month has gone to Milton, where he will pass the winter with the Rev. J. G. Currier. While there he will take a special course in Greek and Latin.

John Anderson, well known in this city, in a letter to The Times, says he is nicely located with Hugh Sisson & Sons in Baltimore, as manager of the warerooms. He says business has been very dull, but is improving.

The pavilion was crowded again last evening at the second night of the Ladies of Clan Gordon fair, the attendance being equal to that of the first night. The farce, "Aunt Dinah's Quilting Party," proved a capital entertainment and was especially well presented.

The fire department was called out at 7:30 o'clock this morning by still alarm for a chimney fire in the two-story house at 8 Foster street occupied by Joseph Papin and an Italian family. The fire was all confined to the chimney, which was getting hot fast, until the firemen applied the chemical hose to the bottom of the chimney.

E. A. Gallison, the civil engineer, a member of the firm of Walker & Gallison, having accepted a position as engineer for the Arthur F. Fels Engineering company of Portland, Me., has sold all his interests in the firm of Walker & Gallison to F. A. Walker, who will continue the business. Mr. Gallison leaves at once for Portland to take up his new duties.

A reception was given Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Haddican in the Quinlan block hall last evening in honor of their fifth wedding anniversary. The party of friends present numbered about sixty. W. H. Jones, in behalf of the company, presented Mr. and Mrs. Haddican a handsome sideboard and chair, to which Mr. Haddican fittingly responded. The evening was then passed very pleasantly in a social manner and dancing. Refreshments were served.
